Movie Review
 Ferndale Historical Society
 These reviews are prepared by Mrs. Virginia H. Gibson for the Royal Oak PTA Council and are published by The Daily Tribune as a public service for its readers.

"The Red House," adult; the house in the woods proves to be the clue to a mystery in this psychological drama.

"Bringing Up Father," family; a screen version of the comic strip.

"Rebecca," adult; the memory of a man's first wife lives on to haunt his young bride.

"This Man's Navy," family; telling tales leads a Navy man into trouble in this adventure yarn of Navy dirigibles.

"It Happened in Brooklyn," family; in this musical a GI's boasting entices an Englishman to the United States.

"The Trap," mature family.

"My Favorite Brunette," mature family; farcical imitation of a psychological thriller a la Hope.

"A Yank in London," mature family; social drama in which a U. S. soldier broadens his understanding of British ways.

"It's a Wonderful Life," mature family; thwarted in actual life, a man is given the chance to see what would have happened had he not been born.

"The Homestretch," mature family; conflicts arise when a playboy marries a Boston beauty in this drama woven around horse-racing.

"Guilt of Janet Ames," adult; in an attempt to help a neurotic woman a reporter helps himself in this psychological drama.
