Youth Slain in Holdup

Alan Jay Pringle, an 18-year-old Ferndale youth, was shot to death after an attempted hold-up late Friday. It was Pringle's first day on a part-time job in a Utica service station, managed by a friend Jay Griffiths of Madison Heights.

The youth was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore A. Pringle, 57, and Mrs. Annabelle Pringle, 57, both of Ferndale.

Survivors included a sister, Susan Lee, and two step brothers, Keith Allen and Craig Lee French, of Venice, Calif.

The boy was a junior at Hazel Park High School. A former drop out, he had returned to school to finish his education. Future plans included a September wedding, and new job opportunities. He had planned to leave Wednesday for Florida.

Alan's life had more than its share of tragedy. A tall, six-footer with ambition to use his skills at ice hockey to win a college scholarship, his hopes skidded with a hard body-check and a crippling injury to his left hip.

Two operations failed to restore the fracture and kept him out of military service. Alan walked with a noticeable limp since the 1962 accident.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Dec. 27, at the Virgo E. Kinsey Funeral Home.

Interment was in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

POLICE arrested two youths.

In a stolen car less than an hour after the slaying, the two led police from several suburbs on a bullet-punctuated, 35-mile chase at speeds up to 130 miles an hour. Griffiths told police he heard a shot and turned around to see Pringle fall.

Pringle died en route to St. Joseph Hospital in Mt. Pleasant, Mich.

Police impounded the car.

The sum represents 16.66 per cent of the December apportionment of state aid money distributed to various school districts in Oakland County.

level totaling salaries of $305,800.

WHERE THE ACTION IS — Pete O'Connell, Rita Huber, Don Thomas (kneeling), Laura Spurr, Ron Stanaway, Ann Hansen and Scott Vinton stop at the Stanaways before attending the annual Pleasant Ridge party at Red Run.

They Keep Them Off the Streets

Would you believe it? Ray Stanaway and his wife are the "adopted parents" to over 35 children!

Ever since the Stanaways' son Ron started bringing home report cards, the Stanaways have been involved in school activities. What busy years they have had! The Eagle Eye Review, Band Boosters, the Senior party, and PTA at Coolidge and Ferndale High School were only a few of their many projects.

Ray also arranged for tickets to Lansing to spur our team on to victory and a state basketball championship and for an open house to be held at his house at 70 Woodward Heights after the game. There the trophy was displayed as 250 guests celebrated the successful "Hey to the Hut."

Most important, though, is the welcome mat, the Stanaways extend to their son's friends. Each night this week there has been a reunion for at least 25 to 35 people from the Ferndale High School graduated classes of '65 & '66.

ALL of Ron's friends use the house on Woodward Heights as their second home. It is here they meet and discuss all the pressing problems of teenagers. The warm coziness is always there, day or night.

"They respect us as adults," Ray commented. "There is absolutely no drinking and our house rules hold without question."

"We're proud of all of them," Mrs. Stanaway added. "Our buffet holds graduation pictures of 35 of our 'Children.' One wall is full of Christmas cards and gifts." The Stanaway's hospitality has moved to larger quarters. Friday night they will host a party for 150 young friends at 4 Ridge Road.

"Our house rules now become hall rules," said Mrs. Stanaway. "Admission is by invitation only."

"It's just a little get-together for these kids. Some have moved away, others have gone on to school, still others are working. This is just a chance for these kids to see one another, their dates and socialize."

The "unofficial teenage center" started when Ron had some friends over one Friday night. It continued when his friends returned the next day to help clean up. After that, the door was open.

"My wife and I are only children and Ron is an only child, so our 'adopted children' drop in to keep us from getting lonely. Almost 40 friends were here on Christmas Eve. It was a very Merry Christmas!"

Ready Rinks

Ferndale Recreation department announced that nine ice rinks will be flooded for their skating program. Six of these rinks will be on Magic Squares.

Harding, Mapleleaf, Roosevelt, Taft, Wanda and Wilson Parks have cement or asphalt for a base. Breckenridge at Bermuda, Martin Road Park and Washington School have clay bases.

Rinks will be supervised from 4 to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays. On hockey evenings, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, ice rink supervisors will be there until 9:30 p.m.

Hockey is permitted on all rinks from 8 to 9:30 p.m., Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays; on Saturday and Sunday mornings until 1 p.m.

Supervision will also be extended from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 to 3:30 on Saturdays. On Sunday afternoon from 1 to 5:30, supervisors are at the rinks.

Hockey can be played until 1 p.m. both Saturday and Sunday.

"Put names on shoes, skate guards, and belongings that might be left beside the rink, so supervisors can help watch possessions," said recreation director Roger Kowalski.

"Gates will be locked when supervisors cannot be on duty, so skaters are asked not to go on the ice at this time, nor climb the gates when the ice is too soft," he added.

Recreation authorities ask skaters not to chip holes in the ice or try to use it at unauthorized times.

Registrations for a beginning Junior Rifle Club for junior high school students are now being taken, by Ferndale Recreation Department.

Classes are held from 7 to 9 p.m. at Washington grade school, and lessons will start Jan. 4. The fee is $4 for six weeks, and a parent must attend the first lesson.

Classes are Wednesday evenings only, and the class is limited to 12, so call the Recreation office, LI-7-6000, extension 40, for reservations.

LETTERS To the Editor

Dear Mrs. Klemanski,
My students, and I'm sure this applies to those from other schools, enjoyed and learned from your talk. I am particularly pleased to have had the opportunity to meet you after sharing so many things with you, including your fine writings. It was very generous of you to give us of your time and to share with us your experiences.
Sincerely,

Two Ferndale High School students are members of the 1967 Musical Youth International (MYI) band and chorus. Representing 50 schools, 100 high school students from Michigan and Ohio make up this select group which each summer travels abroad on concert tours.
Stacia Swantek of 858 Lewiston, Ferndale, and Bill White of 23271 Rosewood, Oak Park, will tour with the group.
Begun in 1965, MYI is a member of the People-to-People program having been recommended by former president Dwight D. Eisenhower. Again this year, the group is affiliated with a teen club, sponsored by the Ann Arbor Chapter.

A chartered jet plane will transport MYI and other People-to-People members on the summer tour. They will leave for London, England June 23 and return from Stuttgart, Germany, July 29. A "post-European" tour has been scheduled to EXPO 67 in Montreal, Canada for August.

Q. Is there a special limitation for people who are in a qualified psychiatric or tuberculosis hospital when their hospital insurance protection starts?

A. Yes. For a person in such a hospital on his first day of coverage, the number of days for which hospital insurance can pay in the first
"spell of illness" is reduced by the total number of days the person has been in the hospital during the previous 90 days.

For example, if a person's hospital insurance starts July 1, 1966, and he was in a psychiatric or tuberculosis hospital on that day and the 50 days before, hospital insurance could pay for only 40 days in that "spell of illness."

Babson Predicts Economic Slowdown for 1967

The close of 1966 marks the seventieth consecutive month in the life span of the longest business boom of all time for the American economy. However, "trees do not grow to the sky." Already, signs of deterioration in the expansive vigor that characterized the earlier phase of the business upswing have been increasing in 1966. Hence, the outlook for business and finance in 1967 is of greater-than-usual importance.

Lest readers be tempted to "push the panic button," however, let me state that it would be unwise to expect a major depression in 1967. Our greatly expanded economy still has a considerable degree of momentum. The spotlight on 1967, therefore, should focus upon those factors which are likely to cause a breathing spell in economic activity. Politicians and labor leaders have a phobia against even a hesitancy in business, and rush headlong into measures designed to treat a case of pneumonia when cold pills would be more appropriate.

Although business and financial problems loom large in the prospects for 1967, I must first warn readers that the greatest danger for the year ahead does not exist on the domestic front. Surely it will be developments abroad that will hold the gravest threat to our country. These could be economic as well as military or political.

I foresee no war between the United States and Russia in 1967. However, tensions between the two world leaders may seem to reach the breaking point as the Kremlin "goes all out" to create diversions to our efforts in Vietnam. Look for Moscow to throw salt on festering wounds in the Middle East, Africa, and Germany.

I am also hopeful that a direct clash between Red China and the U.S. can be avoided in 1967. Internal dissensions are rampant throughout Mainland China, and a great scramble for power is in full swing. Sabre-rattling may help to unify the people; but pressing problems of low productivity, plus the demands of her nuclear program, should restrain Red China from direct attack upon the United States.

The struggle for leadership of the Communist world will continue unabated throughout 1967. Full political attack will be mounted by the Kremlin against Peking. It will be touch and go, however, whether Russia can persuade her wavering satellites to sign a final manifesto reading Red China out of the Party.

Recent elections in West Germany have fanned the embers of nationalism into a tiny flame. This has surely thrown a scare into Russian leaders. I predict that they will take a harder line against Germany in 1967 than in some time. I feel that we should particularly watch General de Gaulle, who is playing closer and closer to Moscow from month to month.

Heavily armed with Soviet weapons, the Arabs of the Middle East—squared off against Israel—present a grave threat to world peace. Nevertheless, I do not believe that Russia or the United States can afford a direct confrontation at this time; hence my forecast that the smoldering there will not erupt into World War III.

While all reasonable people are hoping for a genuine peace in Vietnam, I predict that the issue will not be resolved in 1967. Though the tide of battle is swinging in our favor, we may be forced to increase our commitment in order to retain this upper hand.

I predict, therefore, that military spending will be raised in 1967. This can help soften the impact of any easing in the private sector of the economy.

Turning now to domestic conditions, I foresee a definite deceleration in business activity in 1967. The fantastic boom is in need of a rest. Instead of the strong upturn of recent years, I look for a high level of industrial production early in the year; but unless some new stimulus is introduced, I fear that a cresting-over pattern is likely to develop as 1967 progresses.

I forecast a continuation of the tug of war between inflation and deflation in 1967. Tight credit, and increased productive capacity resulting from the flood of business capital expenditures in recent years, are deflationary. However, I can see no substantial relief from the inflation in labor and other operating costs. In short, we can have "cost-push" inflation co-existing with deflation.

A key factor in the business and financial outlook for 1967 is taxes. With defense outlays climbing, I look for a rise in corporate and personal taxes in 1967. Moreover, I forecast that various levies at the state and local levels will continue to increase.

The tightening tax squeeze on all fronts will worsen as the year advances. And there will be rising complaints from both businessmen and employees that social security taxes are becoming unbearable.

Results of the recent elections indicate that the heading run of the Great Society Program must take a breather along with the economy. Gains scored by the Republicans have altered the balance of power sufficiently to force a more sober look in public spending.

One of the primary reasons for expecting a deceleration in the economy is the likelihood that business capital expenditures may ease. Tight credit, suspension of accelerated depreciation guidelines, and suspension of the tax credit on business capital outlays will be tough obstacles to surmount.

Except in defense industries, I look for an abrupt switch during 1967 from a business policy of inventory accumulation to one of inventory liquidation.

I forecast that scarcity of credit will continue to more activities will be widdling the paring knife. I forecast that the net result will be a rise in unemployment next year.

I do not look for price and wage controls in 1967, unless our defense expenditures rise far above what is now contemplated.

An encouraging aspect of the 1967 outlook is the affluence of consumers. I forecast a further upward trend in personal incomes due to higher wage rates. However, if taxes are raised, take-home pay may not show a rise commensurate with the gain in gross pay.

Retail trade held up well in 1966, but there was a note of lethargy throughout the year. The pattern is not expected to show much change in 1967, with gains in dollar volume largely reflecting price inflation. Though consumers will have more money to spend, tight credit, high borrowing costs, and higher price levels could cause some tightening of purse strings.

Spending for food, apparel, and general merchandise should be greater in 1967. Also, consumers will devote a goodly portion of their spending budget for leisure activities, vacation, and travel. Durable goods may not fare so well. Demand for home appliances, color TV sets, and furniture may be hampered by tight credit and high borrowing costs, plus the lethargy in new home building. I forecast a decline in new auto sales. However, with the increase in the population of driving age, and with the record rate of personal income, new car sales could hold within 10% of 1966's.

Soaring living costs will hit the headlines more often in 1967. It will be directed most strongly at runaway expenses, especially medical—and at advancing red meat prices. Despite new highs in the cost of living, I predict there will be many signs of deflation in the midst of inflation. Chief among these will be sliding profits, rising bankruptcies, and foreclosures.

Industrial commodity prices should be firm to slightly higher. Selective price mark-ups will be necessary to offset wage hikes.

Profits began to wobble in the final half of 1966. I am convinced that hesitancy will give way to decline during the year ahead. Big squeeze on margins will come from soaring costs, especially labor. But profits results will also vary widely from one company and one industry to another, as sales volumes sag, hold, or advance. For example, I am willing to "stick my neck out" and say that oil companies will enjoy a sales rise but that the auto makers will be struggling with a volume slump all year.

The combination of less vigorous business, pinched profit margins, and stringent credit conditions points to an increase in business failures, shaking out the financially weak and inefficient.

Collections may be more difficult in 1967 on business accounts, consumer installment and charge accounts, and mortgage debt. I forecast a further rise in nonfarm real estate foreclosures.

Barring crop failures, I forecast another good farm production year. Farm prices should rule firm to slightly higher in 1967, but higher costs may result in a slight drop in net realized farm income.

Nevertheless, farm equipment manufacturers should enjoy good business. Sales of fertilizers and insecticides should post gains.

1967's stock market promises to be one of vicious selectivity. I am expecting the old aristocracy of the blue chips based on past performance to be replaced by a new aristocracy of super-able management based upon hopes of good future performance.

I forecast, however, that 1967 will still hold many dangers for the speculator. I urge readers to borrow money to buy stocks, and I urge investors to buy for growth and basic investment values.

The safest kind of long-term bonds are available now at prices affording very close to the highest income returns of the century. It is a good bet that there will not be so many top-grade issues on the bargain counter at the end of 1967. Should the 90th Congress boost income taxes, tax-

Product which I am forecasting here. Biggest part of the increase will come from higher prices and wages.

I foresee that a breathing spell in the economy can prove helpful. The prolonged prosperity has bred waste, laxness and inefficiency. These can be corrected only by a return to the fundamentals. Just as the human body requires adequate rest in order to enjoy proper health, so too the economy, and the stock market as well, must undergo periodic resting phases.

As the economy cools off readers should beware of reassurances that our problems are only temporary and will be soon followed by a decade of boom conditions. The promised land may be only across the river, but it is always wise to test the depth of the water before wading in. That is behind my forecast that 1967 will be a good year for businessmen and investors to have strong confidence in the future, but to proceed with caution and restraint until the uncertainties just ahead have been resolved.

Ask Amy . . . By Amy Adams

Dear Amy:

I am a 17-year-old girl, a sophomore in college and I am going with a wonderful and considerate boy who is a junior in college. I have known him for two months. He likes to park and neck. Please tell me if it is all right to do this? I must know and hope you print this as I'm sure many girls would be interested.

Just Curious

Dear Curious:

A girl of 17 who is a sophomore in college must be extremely intelligent, so I know that the following information will be evaluated carefully before the next time you park.

Many wonderful and considerate boys enjoy "necking." This does not mean that because they want to, you have to. Decent, respectable girls, and I hope you're one of them, must draw a line somewhere. I assure you that the boy, if he cares for you, will not like you less because you did not give in to his emotions. Rather, he will admire and respect you for your self-discipline.

Necking in itself will not ruin a girl, nor help her reputation. Its resultant complications, however, can be very damaging. Rise to every situation . . . but never step down!

Dear Amy:

I am living next door to a three-ring circus. My neighbor is running a beauty shop in her basement which is prohibited by the zoning law. Not only has she a neat set-up, but her children have all the kids in the neighborhood in their yard. Noise, hollering, animals (rabbits and a dog), cars parked all around in and out of the yard.

Who listens to this racket, not she . . . but the neighbors!

Now comes the best part: When it's bedtime for the average citizen who has to get up and make an honest living, she opens her windows wide, turns up the TV set, some more hollering and yelling by the kids so that it's impossible to sleep. This goes on till after midnight.

So what is an honest man to do? Sell his house or have a nervous breakdown? What would you do?

As usual, I suppose, this letter will not even be printed and the violators go scot free while Mr. Honest Citizen suffers.

Disgusted

Dear Disgusted:

If seeing your letter in print solves your problem, you have it made. But where action is necessary, conversation just won't do. If you cannot resolve the problem with your neighbor, see your councilman or attend the next council meeting and air your problem.

You have every right to enjoy peace and quiet in your home and neighborhood if it is zoned as residential. That's what I would do!

Dear Amy:

The letter in your column from the "Poker Widow" struck home. I, too, was getting the same deal as she for years until I realized that a man has the right to enjoy his likes in his own home. Now I'm no longer a "poker widow." As a matter of fact, I enjoy having the men over on Saturday nights. They're a laugh a minute.

I have my husband and I're happier than ever and I have a new philosophy for other "poker widows." I like you to print: "Life is like a game of cards. You can't decide what hands you are going to have dealt to you, but you can decide how to play your hand!"

A Wheeler-dealer

Dear Amy:

I am writing, to the 13-year-old "Full of Temper" and any other teenager who has a temper problem. I am 15 years old myself and I know just what all teenagers are going through: The uncontrollable temper stage. I'd like to pass on a few pointers about relieving the pressure.

One of the best ways is to beat up your pillow! It may sound crude, but it relieves you of the closed-in feeling. (If you have a punching bag, that's even better.) My sister's fiancé said that he used to color in coloring books to relieve the tension even though he was a teenager. My brother works out with weights in the basement to let off steam, and my own favorite tension reliever is strumming the ukulele and singing in the privacy of my bedroom.

Amy, if I can help some teenager with this problem, I'll be satisfied.

NOT Full of Temper

Dear Amy:

You probably won't believe this but so help me, it's true! I've been married for seven years and I've never met my husband's parents. They live within 100 miles of our house and I've never seen them because of the circumstances of our marriage.

We are of different faiths and my husband's people wouldn't even come to our wedding. This has troubled me for years.

My husband and I are very happy and our marriage has turned out successfully. Don't you think they should overlook the differences in our religions and try to make me feel like I belong?

What would you suggest?

Mrs. B. N.

Dear Mrs. B. N.: If after seven years, your husband's parents have not seen fit to accept you for what you are, I would say you would be wasting your time to try to show them anything. The limits of sociability have long since passed.

Dear Amy:

I would like you to tell me if there is something wrong with me. When a situation arises, I never seem to know what to say. Later on, or the next day, I realize what I should have said and didn't. This always happens even when I tell myself I'll know what to say the next time! Does anyone else have this trouble that you know of?

Phil

Dear Phil: If there is something wrong with you, then we're all suffering from the same trouble. This is very normal and tomorrow I'll probably think of a better answer for you than I have today.

Dear Amy:

I'm going with a very nice young man. He's considerate, good company, has a fine personality and is liked by everyone. His only fault is that he hasn't a good education, while I have gone through college. He makes a lot of mistakes in grammar, and my friends tease me about it. We are quite serious about each other and I certainly don't want a difference in education to ruin my love life.

Is there any way to resolve this problem?

College Grad

Dear Grad:

Der suddenly is, if data his only fault, marry da guy and join him some good words to make wid.

Dear Amy:

I am 12 years old, but large for my age. Mother and Daddy say I should go to school and not think about girlfriends. Other girls in our school have boyfriends. Please tell me, should I mind Mama or go with the boys?

Blondie

Dear Blondie:

Mind mama. You're at the right age for 'thinking,' but at the wrong age for 'doing'!

Dear Amy:

I am 20 and my boyfriend, whom I plan on marrying, is 25. He is a wonderful guy and is everything I ever wanted. However, there is one thing that bothers me. I come from a very close family and have always wanted to marry into a close family. He does not come from a close family. In fact, he's never even felt loved by his family. They are all very indifferent and rather cold (brothers and sisters alike). He wants to have his family love him and he tries very hard, but they just don't seem to care one way or another. If they feel this way toward him, I'm sure their feelings for me would be even less.

I would appreciate knowing how you feel about this. Would this be a reason for not marrying him, or if I do marry him, should we have nothing at all to do with his family? Is the family that important that I should let it concern me so much?

I will be looking forward to your advice.

Barbara

Dear Barbara: The attitude of families toward one another is important, but it should not be the deciding factor in whether to marry a man or not. Sometimes, one cannot change the actions and feelings of others no matter how much they try. Some people are warm and loving, while others are just "cold fish."

The "cold fish" people are rarely genuinely happy nor do they bring happiness to others.

By all means, marry if you love each other. Start a family of your own filled with love and care . . . and set an example for those members of his family who need an example set!

Dear Amy:

I am very unhappy because I am freckled. They are terrible! If I go anywhere, people stare at me as if they have never seen anything like freckles before — and boys don't like me, either. When a boy comes near me, I get up and run away so he won't see my face.

My girlfriends say that the freckles are nothing — but they are!

Unhappy

Dear Unhappy:

It might interest you to know that the top-flight models who are employed by world-renowned designers and photographers are having freckles (false, of course) applied to their faces and wherever else it shows.

It suddenly has become quite feminine and chick . . . so don't fret; hold your head high. You're with the "in" crowd!
