Artists and Models

The most important part of any school is the people who belong to it. The administration and faculty are indeed artists in their respective fields. They help to mold the character as well as the academic abilities of their pupils. The students are therefore models. Whether sitting in classrooms or taking part in activities, they are constantly observing the skill of their teachers or advisors.

A high school is almost void without its artists and models. The people fill in the hollowness, creating a place where it is enjoyable and beneficial to work and play.

 CONGRATULATIONS
 FROM ALL

*If one was to build a student
 That is a teacher's dream;
 He'd no doubt be an intellect,
 And always on the beam.*

*His manners would be courteous,
 His appearance always clean;
 And he'd have a letter sweater
 On which four strips are seen.*

*But he must have school spirit,
 And let this in him abound;
 And if you should quest to find him,
 You need merely look around.*

*For you'll find him all about you,
 For everyone to see
 Who else is this I speak of,
 But the senior, '63.*

"Out we journey, onto the Highways of Life."

To our advertisers, without whose support this yearbook would have been far from a possibility, we wish to express our heartfelt thanks. Time and again the advertisers' cooperation and backing is displayed, not only in this publication, but throughout our high school enterprises. We find Ferndale merchants and businessmen buying space in the Eagle, our school newspaper, and lending their merchandise for use in the all-school play. This ready willingness to support on the part of the businessmen of Ferndale exemplifies the civic minded and openhanded spirit the community of Ferndale seems to possess.
